An ACT for ſtamping, imprinting, emitting, and making current, the Sum of Three Thouſand Pounds Sterling, in Paper Bills of Credit; to be be let out at Intereſt, on good Security, at Six per Cent per Annum; and for applying the ſaid Intereſt.

After which His Excellency was pleaſed to make the following affectionate SPEECH to both Houſes as follows:

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the Aſſembly,

THE Diſpatch you have given to the Public Buſineſs, induces me to give you that Receſs which the Care of your private Affairs at this Seaſon of the Year requires.

Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

The Sum of Money you have directed to be raiſed, and defraying the Expences of ſome Contingencies of Government, though very ſmall and inadequate to the good Purpoſes intended, is however a Proof of your Inclination to conform to His Majeſty's Inſtructions as far as your Circumſtances will admit of. There are ſome Men (very few I hope, and they of deſperate Fortunes) who diſlike the Government here merely becauſe it is a Government; for their only View is Anarchy and Confuſion: They have gone about to poiſon the Minds of the People with groundleſs Jealouſies and falſe Inſinuations: Let it be your Care, in your ſeveral Diſtricts, to fruſtrate their wicked Intentions, by undeceiving the Deluded and Miſled, that this Colony may be united and happy.

If any unforeſeen Event ſhould require your immediate Advice and Aſſiſtance, I ſhall, notwithſtanding any Prorogation, call you together by Proclamation, to which I make no Doubt you will pay due Regard; and I do therefore prorogue this Aſſembly, to Wedneſday the ſeventh Day of January next.

WHEREAS by an act of the general assembly of the province of South Carolina aforesaid, renunciations of inheritance, dower, and thirds of feme coverts in this province, taken and acknowledged before the chief justice of this province, or before such person or persons as are authorised by him, are declared to be as effectual and valid in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, as any fine passed in due form of law in his majesty's court of common pleas at Westminster, for conveying of land in Great-Britain.

And Whereas many errors, faults and abuses have and may be committed, in the drawing and suing out of such renunciations of inheritance, dower, and thirds, by reason that many persons unskilful in the law, and such as are not under the immediate direction and authority of this court, do take upon them to draw and sue out such renunciations of inheritance, dower or thirds, and which may tend greatly to the hurt, prejudice and disherison of numbers of the good people of this province: And inasmuch as, if any such abuses, faults or misdemeanours do happen touching the same, through their ignorance or negligence, no reformation or punishment can be had, they being for the most part persons unknown and living in remote or obscure places.

It is therefore ORDERED, that no renunciations of inheritance or dower, and thirds, shall be received, or allowed by the court here, unless the same appears to have been sued out by some barrister at law, or some of the attornies of this court, and subscribed with the name of such barrister or attorney, to the intent that if any misdemeanour be committed, the person subscribing such renunciation, may be called to answer for it.

And be it further ORDERED, that no renunciation of inheritance, dower, or thirds whatsoever, taken and acknowledged before any commissioner or commissioners, by virtue of any writ of Dedimus Potestatem to them directed, be allowed to pass, unless the person or persons before whom such acknowledgment was made, or one of them, or some person present when such acknowledgment was made, do personally appear before the chief-justice of this province, or one of the assistant justices, and be examined upon oath, touching the due execution thereof; which oath shall be indorsed on the back of such writ of Dedimus Potestatem.
